

BEV - The Austrian Federal Office of Metrology and Surveying

BEV - Federal Office of Metrology and Surveying

Contents

- The BEV
- Organisational Chart
- Cadastral Offices
- Verification Offices
- Quality Policy
- Corporate Aims
- Environment Policy

The BEV

- BEV - The Austrian Federal Office of Metrology and Surveying is a subordinate authority of the Federal Ministry of Economy, Family and Youth
- Head: DI Wernher Hoffmann
- Two domains, which are based on the tasks assigned by law
  - Surveying und Geoinformation → Surveying Act
  - Metrology Service → Metrology Act

The BEV

The main tasks in the field of Surveying and Geoinformation are:

- Control survey
- Administration and maintenance of the cadastre and
- The topographic survey

The BEV

The metrology service

- Consists of the National Metrology Institute (NMI) and
- The national legal metrology authority of Austria

- Tasks of the NMI:
  - Maintenance and development of the national measurement standards for the legal units of measurement
  - Define the method of the representation of the legal units of measurement as well as
  - Ensure international equivalence and recognition of the national measurement standards

- As a legal metrology authority it is entrusted with all tasks of legal metrology

Organisational Chart

Federal Office of Metrology and Surveying Head Wernher Hoffmann Vice-President Johann Pacher
Information and Marketing Wernher Hoffmann	Law and Resources Johann Pacher	Metrology Service Robert Edelmaier	Cadastral Offices Verification Offices Rupert Kugler	Surveying Service Michael Franzen
Information Management Wernher Hoffmann	Law and General Administration Martin Müller-Fembeck	Electricity and Radiation Petra Jachs	Verification Offices	Control Survey Norbert Höggerl
International Affairs, State Boundaries Gert Steinkellner	Human Resources Management &amp; Development Johann Pacher	Mechanics and Flow Robert Edelmaier	Cadastral Offices	Remote Sensing Michael Franzen
Information Technology Thomas Matausch	Economic and Financial Management Bernhard Mairamhof	Technical Support Michael Freisinger	Information and Teleworking Centres	Landscape Information Gerhard Paul
Marketing and Sales Bernhard Jüptner			Cadastral Archives Susanne Fuhrmann	Cartography Viktor Zill
Unit for Authorization of Verification Bodies	Notified Body	Physico-Technical Testing Service (PTP)	Austrian Coordinating Body for Geoinformation	Publishing of Geoinformation Michael Franzen

Cadastral Offices

- Cadastral Office (Vermessungsamt)
- Service Point (Dienststelle)
- Information and Teleworking Centre (Informations- und Telearbeitszentrum)

Verification Offices

- Verification Office (Eichamt)

Quality Policy

- Customer focus
- Impartiality
- Staff focus
- Corporate culture
- Cooperation with international organizations
- Continual improvement of work processes and administrative procedures
- Commitment to quality

Corporate Aims

- The BEV is a public institution with a long tradition applying modern management methods
- Customer oriented
- Our staff members are our biggest asset
- Quality improvement
- The BEV acts as a partner of the economy and the consumers

Environment Policy

- The BEV has a strong relation to the environment
- Adhering to all environmental regulations is a matter of course for the BEV
- With a view to sustainability, the BEV takes great care to minimize environmental effects
- The BEV strengthens environmental protection
- The BEV helps the customers to protect the environment, e.g. by providing information digitally and online

Thank you for your attention!
See you: www.bev.gv.at

Business Card

Gert Steinkellner

Federal Office of Metrology and Surveying
Head of Department International Affairs and State Boundaries

A-1025 Wien, Schiffamtsgasse 1-3

Tel. +43/1/21110-2714

Mobile +43/676/8210-2714

Fax +43/1/21110-4701

gert.steinkellner@bev.gv.at

